

National planting and peace day report

On the occasion of planting and peace day, a communal painting was held at school and the students had a wonderful and cheerful day together. A group of students had prepared some articles for this occasion and read them in English and Persian at the place of planting and then some saplings were planted in the garden of school as a symbol of peace and the peace doves which were made by students were hung up on the trees.

Bahardanesh smart school

Rasht,Guilan

Iran

220 participants

2016/10/19

